

Bookbug Session Template – Bookbug’s Big Giggle

Template		Resource	Notes
Introduction	Welcome families and explain what happens in a Bookbug Session. Let them know this will be a special session all about giggling and having fun together. Remind parents this is a time to join in as best they can with their child.
Hello Song	Hello Everyone, Glad that you could come		Sing hello babies, hello children, hello everyone
Familiar Songs and Rhymes	Cross, Cross, Line, Line; Roon About Moose; Tickle Baby’s Fingers; What Shall We do with the Bouncing Baby?		Or use any tickling rhymes – make sure to add ‘Tickle their tummies’ in What Shall We do with the Bouncing Baby .
Movement Songs and Rhymes	Five Little Monkeys (or Five Cheeky Monkeys); Forwards and Backwards; Shall we play at Peekaboo?; Round and Round the Garden; Shake and Shake; Zoom, Zoom, Zoom	Lycra; Puppets	Try getting faster and faster on some rhymes; Bounce mini Bookbug or puppets on Lycra; Act surprised when you find children under the Lycra during a peekaboo song; Trace the pattern for Round and Round the Garden on the Lycra then end with a big tickle!
Book	Funny Face; Mr Bear Says Tickly Under There; Cock a Moo Moo; No-bot; Pants		These are just some suggestions. Read your favourite book that makes you laugh!
Songs and Rhymes	My Two Hands; If You’re Happy and You Know It...; Little Green Frog; This Little Piggy		Add a verse to My Two Hands ...can tickle you! During If You’re Happy ... add in special verses e.g ...laugh out loud, have a giggle, tickle mummy/daddy/child’s name, or if you have the Bookbug Week tiger mask to give out, use ‘give a roar!’. Pull funny faces and do noises during Little Green Frog or do exaggerated actions or noises for any animal songs.
Calming Song	Bears are sleeping; Damhan-allaidh (Spider, Spider); Tickly, Tickly; Eyes, Nose, Cheeky, Cheeky Chin		Encourage cuddling, sing quieter and quieter then hum. Find the Gaelic song Damhan-allaidh in the Bookbug Song and Rhyme Book
Goodbye Song	Goodbye Everyone		Thank families for coming; encourage book borrowing.
