

Days like this

We all have days we'll never forget.
We want to hear about yours.

What's your memorable day? We want to hear about it.

BBC RADIO SCOTLAND
92-95FM & 810MW

Take part in this unique project, run by BBC Radio Scotland and Scottish Book Trust. All you need to do is write about a day in your life that was a bit extraordinary.

It could be the day you didn't get married, or the day you got lost in a supermarket. Is there a day that still haunts you? Or makes you smile? Or cry?

If your story is true and centres on a single day, we want to hear from you – everybody has a story to tell!
